Thomas W. Moulton

HEBER—Thomas W. Moulton, 71, retired farmer and stockman and a lifelong resident of Heber, died Sunday at his home after a cerebral hemorrhage suffered three weeks ago.

He married Elizabeth Anderson on Oct. 19, 1898. Surviving besides his widow are 10 sons and daughters, Mrs. Della Webber, Ore.; Mrs. Grace Halger, Ogden, Lynden Moulton, Mrs. Nellie Simmons and Mrs. Afton Davis, Heber; Mrs. Virginia Parkhurst, Denver, Colo.; Mrs. Laura Morris, Hailstone; Mrs. Pearl Edwards, Charleston, and Mrs. Merle Bradshaw, and Mrs. Lucille Cochrane, Salt Lake, 18 grandchildren, and the following brothers and sisters: Joseph G. Moulton, Heber; Mrs. Melinda Clegg, Lake View, Nephi Moulton, Jackson, Wyo.; John and Charles Moulton, Salt Lake, and several half brothers and sisters.

Funeral services will be conducted Thursday at 2 p.m. in the Wasatch Stake Tabernacle by Bishop Ralph Giles. Burial will be in the Heber City Cemetery.

Friends may call at the family residence Wednesday evening and Thursday prior to services.

Moulton Services Held Thursday

Funeral services for Thomas W. Moulton who died at his home in Heber Sunday, February 13, were held February 17 at 2 p. m. in the Wasatch Stake Tabernacle with Bishop Ralph Giles conducting.

The services were as follows:

Prelude, Ethel Watson; "Abide With Me", male quartet; opening prayer, Bishop Wayne Whiting of Charleston; solo, "One Fleeting Hour", Bert Dayton, accompanied by Ethel Watson; duet, "In The Garden," Marjorie Provost and Rulon Huntington, accompanied by Ethel Watson. remarks, Fredrick Crook; remarks, L. C. Montgomery; closing remarks, Bishop Giles; selection, male quartet; benediction, Irwin Hicken.

Pallbearers, all close friends of Mr. Moulton, were C. L. Watkins, Olie L. Johnson, Frank Hicken, Noah Giles, Robert Brierley and A. Pratt Hicken.

Burial was in the Heber City cemetery where the grave was dedicated by J. Lyndon Chapman.

Out of town people attending the funeral services for Mr. Thomas W. Moulton were Mr. and Mrs. John M. Moulton and daughters, Chase Moulton, Art Cochrane and Mrs. Van Johnson, all of Salt Lake City; Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Moulton, Mrs. Malinda Clegg and daughter and son, and Mrs. Myrtle Cochrane of Provo; Mr. Lyman Moulton of Delta, Mr. and Mrs. Nephi Moulton, Jr., of Magna, Mr. Molt Smith of Ogden, Mrs. Deon Seedall of Idaho Falls, Idaho, Mr. and Mrs. James Anderson and Mr. and Mrs. Patten Bench of Duchesne, Mr. Edward Anderson of Logan, Mrs. Dorothy Ivers of Lehi, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Clegg and Mrs. Joseph Street of Park City and Mr. and Mrs. William Davis and family of Provo.